

Marcus Holmstrand leaves as CFO at Catella

Catella AB's (publ) Chief Financial Officer (CFO) has announced that he resigns from his employment. He will continue in his current role during the notice period of six months to ensure an orderly transition until a new CFO takes office.

Marcus Holmstrand has been CFO of Catella since September 2015 and previously worked as Group Business Controller since 2011.

“During his time at Catella, Marcus Holmstrand has been very important to the company's strong development. Marcus has contributed as CFO but has also taken on a broader responsibility in his role as a member of Group Management. After eight years at Catella, I understand that Marcus wants to look for new challenges outside of the company. I want to thank him for this time and wish him all the best with future challenges,” says CEO Knut Pedersen.

Three weeks ago, it was announced that CEO Knut Pedersen will leave Catella in conjunction with the Annual General Meeting in May 2020.

“Catella is now facing two important recruits where one, to the role of new CEO, has already begun and where we will immediately begin the recruitment of new CFO. My ambition is for the transition to take place as smoothly as possible, which we can ensure by the fact that both the current CEO and CFO continue to work well into 2020. I would like to thank both Marcus and Knut for their many important contributions to Catella's development. Now we have the opportunity to recruit a new strong team that can continue the Catella growth journey.” says Catella's Chairman Johan Claesson.
