

Management changes in Catella AB (publ)

The Board of directors of Catella AB (publ) has decided to appoint current acting Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Mattias Brodin to CFO as of 1 August 2021. On 1 June, Michel Fischier will take on the role as Head of Investor Relations and Group Communications and Johanna Bjärnemyr joins as Head of Group Legal.

Mattias Brodin has held the position of acting CFO since 26 March 2021. Before that, he has held positions as Interim Group CFO at Transcendent Group (publ.) and previously similar positions at Estate Group Sverige and Apoteksgruppen. Mattias Brodin has extensive knowledge of Real Estate and other industries such as Industry, Logistics and Retail.

"It's feels wonderful to take on the role as Chief Financial Officer. Catella is a complex organization with challenging and interesting projects. I really look forward to contributing to Catella's continued development together with the management team and all employee, says Mattias Brodin, incoming CFO.

Michel Fischier will start as Head of Investor Relations and Group Communications on 1 June. Michel most recently comes from the position as Vice President Investor Relations at SAS. He has extensive experience in investor relations and communications from roles in for example Hoist Finance and Skandia.

"I look forward to participating in the continued work of positioning Catella towards a more property-focused company. Catella has a strong brand both in the real estate industry and among investors. I see great opportunities to continued development, says Michel Fischier, Head of Investor Relations and Group Communications.

On June 1, Johanna Bjärnemyr is also taking on the role as Head of Group Legal. Johanna has deep experience from the real estate industry through roles at Hemfosa Fastigheter AB, Wistrand Advokatbyrå and Advokatfirman Cederquist.

"It feels great to join Catella during such an eventful time. Catella's increased property focus, new business areas and work towards a broader market in a bigger context attracts me. I am very happy for the trust placed in me" says Johanna Bjärnemyr, Head of Group Legal.
