

Catella APAM Delivers Month of New Openings at Chantry Place, Norwich

Catella APAM, the specialist UK real estate asset and investment manager, has secured four new lettings in just four weeks at Chantry Place, Norwich, marking a significant milestone in the centre's ongoing success. The rapid-fire openings – Wingstop, Accessorize, Mowgli and Holland & Barrett – bring a mix of international dining, fashion, and health & wellness to one of the East of England's most visited retail and leisure destinations, reinforcing its position as a vibrant, high-performing scheme.

The run of lettings began on 21 July with the arrival of Wingstop in a 4,400 sq ft unit fronting Chantry Plain. Known for its globally recognised wings and bold flavours, the brand has brought a new energy to Chantry Place's dining offer, attracting both local customers and visitors from further afield.

A week later, Accessorize opened its doors in a 1,800 sq ft unit, adding its much-loved range of fashion accessories to the centre's strong line-up of lifestyle and high-street brands. The store offers shoppers a fresh, affordable fashion choice, complementing the existing retail mix and encouraging cross-shopping within the scheme.

Mowgli, the vibrant Indian street food restaurant, followed on 8 August, taking a 4,100 sq ft space to deliver its fresh, authentic menu in a warm and welcoming setting. Mowgli's arrival has further strengthened Chantry Place's reputation as a food destination, adding a distinctive dining option to the city centre's growing culinary scene.

Completing the series, Holland & Barrett opened on 15 August in a 1,900 sq ft lower ground floor unit, relocating from the upper ground floor and gaining an additional 300 sq ft of space. The move allows the brand to expand its product range and provide an enhanced customer experience. The relocation also enables the backfill of its former unit at a highly visible main entrance, creating a prime opportunity for a new retailer.

Nathan Reidy, Associate Director at Catella APAM, said:

"Delivering four quality openings in just four weeks demonstrates the strong market demand for space at Chantry Place and the success of our ongoing asset management strategy. This momentum brings fresh energy to the centre, strengthens the occupier mix, and creates lasting value for both tenants and visitors."

Catella APAM continues to deliver a targeted leasing programme that supports tenant performance, drives footfall, and ensures Chantry Place remains a destination of choice for shoppers and occupiers alike.
